

Show Preparation: Some photos

Tooth brush to help remove the waxy layer around new feathers to enable to open faster.

Tweezers for de-spotting. Some of us prefer a blunt nose knife as one can easier identify the spot to be removed and not make a mistake by pulling the incorrect spot.

Stock cage

A wire cage that can be moved outside to spray the birds. Spray bottle that can produce a fine mist is very useful.